

SECTION 24.11.300 KEEPING OF LARGE ANIMALS

24.11.310 PURPOSE

The following regulations are established for the keeping of large animals in Residential Zones pursuant to Section 24.03.110 B.5.

- A. All lots shall have a minimum of ten thousand square feet for the keeping of large animals. (Land must be vacant in Zones R-1 through RA)
- B. The following acreages and numbers of animals are the maximum allowable.

Size	Maximum Permitted
10,000 sq. ft.	1
20,000 sq. ft.	2
30,000 sq. ft.	3
1 acre	4
Greater than 1 acre	4 plus one additional animal per acre above one (1) acre.

- C. No such animal shall be kept closer than one hundred (100) feet to an adjoining dwelling on an adjacent lot.
- D. Keeping of such animal shall not be permitted in the required front, side and street side yard setback.
- E. All animals shall be provided with adequate fence enclosure and water to contain them within the boundaries of the owners property.
- F. All excrement produced by said large animals shall be disposed on a regular basis so as to control flies and odor.