Subject: Trustee Attendance at the California Library Association (CLA) Conference

Summary/Background:

During the regular library board meeting on August 12, 2025, the agenda included reviewing and discussing trustee attendance at the California Library Association (CLA) Conference in Riverside, California, from Thursday, October 23, through Saturday, October 25, 2025. It was reported that the early bird attendance rate for trustees is $165.00, and one-day attendance is $80, and pricing is scheduled to increase on September 11.

Trustees were requested to review their availability and desire to attend the CLA Conference. It was identified that Trustee Altamirano had prior commitments, Vice President Estes expressed her interest in attending a second year, President Hernandez noted she desired to attend, and Trustee Sotomayor identified that she had been keeping her calendar clear to attend California's premier conference for libraries. Trustee Banda was not present.

Recommendation:

The board is requested to identify up to two (2) library board members who are committed to attending the 2025 CLA Conference.
